Thus the public will readily see there can be no fraud, collusion, or knowledge of what gift any number will get.

Should the tickets be not all sold when the concert comes off, the presents will be distributed in proportion to the number sold.

It is hoped the public will promptly respond to this effort to establish upon a firm basis a delightful resort during the heated months.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

All quiet at the Mayor's Court.

Several fatal cases of the Epizootic reported.

The Hipporhinorhea has reached Warrenton.

"Ole Bull" is the next attraction in the theatrical line.

Eppi & Zooty are the names of two dray oxen in Wilmington.

W. H. Dodd, on Wilmington street, is prepared to store away cotton.

The city trade is remarkably dull, owing to the prevalence of the epizootic.

Caswell, instead of Tazwell, L. Hargrove received the vote of New Hanover for Attorney General.

We exceedingly regret the slimness of the local column, but it is "just so," and can't be helped.

Strangers in the city purchasing goods will do well to examine the advertising columns of the NEWS.

We noticed on the floor of the Senate yesterday ex-Governor Z. B. Vance. We were pleased to see him looking so well.

Mr. W. J. Wilson, the gentleman elected Enrolling Clerk of the two Houses yesterday, held the same position last session.

Bradley, the tobacconist, brags on the superior excellence of his "golden leaf" brand of chewing tobacco. It is good, we have tried it.

The Doorkeeper of the Senate, Mr. James E. Morris, althongh inexperienced in his new duties, will make a most efficient officer.

Three more Sheriffs settled with the State Treasurer yesterday, but our limited time will not admit of getting names and amount.

The two Houses were quite relieved yesterday when the counting of the returns of the counties for the August election was concluded.

A large amount of valuable property is to be sold in this city on Saturday, the 23rd inst. See the advertisements under the heading "for sale."

According to the strict letter of the law and the count Judge Shipp is re-elected Attorney General of North Carolina by a handsome majority.

We observed several horses on the streets yesterday severely afflicted with the hipporhinnorhea. The authorities ought to prohibit their appearing on the street.

The subscription list of the NEWS has increased at the rate of two hundred and fifty for the past four days—and still there is room for more,—roll on the ball.

The cotton market yesterday in the city was firm. The prices paid for cotton by our merchants are unsurpassed by those of any other market in the South.

The McKee Encampment of I. O. O. F. will hold its regular meeting at their hall on Friday evening. Business of importance will be brought before the Camp.

Nereus Mendenhall is the newly elected Superintendent of Public Instruction according to the official vote as counted out in the House of Representatives.

We were pleased to see in our city yesterday, Mr. Albert Farmer, of Wilson, of the firm of Farmer & Wainwright, manufacturers of Agricultural Implements.

Tod R. Caldwell received only 29 votes and Brogden 7 in Swain county. Will not the Governor elect agree to a compromise and let us call the vote of Swain unanimous for Merrimon.

Dr. Chas. Harris, a prominent citizen of Johnston county, and said to be one of the best medical practitioners in the State, died yesterday at his residence at Earpsboro, in Johnston county.

C. D. Heartt & Co., is the acknowledged city headquarter's for boots, and shoes and hats. As exclusive dealers in these goods they are prepared to offer a superior line of goods at winning prices. Look out for the quarterly announcement to-morrow—then "go for them."

John W. Blount, General Agent for the Life Association of America will proceed to Goldsboro to-morrow, to pay the $5,000 policy of the late D. P. L. White to his widow. Mr. White has only been dead about two weeks, and this promptness is highly commendable in this excellent company that Mr. Blount so well represents.

THE TREASURER'S ACCOUNTS.—Major Dunham yesterday submitted a report to the Senate from the Committee appointed at last session to audit the Treasurer's books, which report will be found in the Senate reports in another column. The report is of a most interesting nature, and has been well prepared by the Committee, into whose hands the matter had been placed, and it is evident that their duty has been well performed.

THE KILLING OF A YOUNG MAN AT WELDON BY A RAILROAD TRAIN.—We published on Sunday morning a dispatch from Weldon concerning the accidental killing of a young man there on Saturday evening. The Roanoke News of yesterday gives the following particulars of the occurrence:

"It becomes our painful duty to record a tragedy, which occurred here on last Saturday, as revolting and horrifying as it was fatal and unexpected. Mr. W. J. Myers, a young man of some twenty years of age or more, a native of Bertie county, but more recently of Seaboard, Northampton county, came to this place about six weeks ago, being employed as a clerk in the large dry goods store of Messrs. White and Bro. Being interested in a hack line between Seaboard and Jackson, and this being court week at the latter place, he asked a week's leave of absence of his employers that he might superintend the line in person, which being granted, he prepared to leave for Seaboard on the train Saturday afternoon. Having some purchases to make he was, delayed, and the whistle blew for the train to leave before he could reach the shed. Running at a rapid pace he came under the railroad shed, from the eastern side, only to find t at the Petersburg train, which had coupled up, was between him and the departing train. Quickening his pace he ran around the Petersburg engine, which stood in front of the Express office, and overtook the outgoing train as it was leaving the depot running at the rate of fifteen or twenty miles per hour.

"He was encumbered with a valise in one hand and an oil can and box of collars in the other. Notwithstanding, he attempted to jump on the rear platform of the second class car, and had, it was thought, secured a firm hold, when, by some unaccountable means, he was precipitated between the two cars, the first wheels passing diagonally across his right leg, when he partially succeeded in gaining a sitting posture, but the steps of the next car dragged him immediately on the track, several wheels passing entirely over his body, mangling him in a most fearful manner. Friends gathered around and raised the mangled form, but he was beyond the reach of mortal aid, showing no sign of animation after the train passed

"The subject of this notice leaves a brother and two sisters in good circumstances in Bertie county. In all his transactions he bore himself with an uniformly Christian standard and made friends wherever he went."

OBTAINED US.—We did not know until we saw the following, that Hussey of the Hickory Tavern Eagle was married. If we have offended his Madame we beg pardon, but we hope to make amends by saying that as Hussey is both young and good looking we thought he was a very good chance for some lady anxious to be entangled in the noose matrimonial:

The unmarried editor of the Hickory Tavern Eagle threatens to publish Matrionial Probabilities in his paper, in which are to be arranged tables under the classes "very soon"—"slow"—"getting warmer"—"getting colder"—"dead." We would like to know under which head the matrimonial prospects of the said editor will be classed?—Raleigh News.

[There is no such NONDESCRIPT connected with the Eagle. The Madame will get after you when she sees this. The editor has been married, lo, these many years, and rejoices in the title of "Father"—having a pair of the finest—we don't mean the smallest—babies in the State. If you doubt it, come up and see for yourself.—Hickory Tavern Eagle.

LEGISLATIVE INCIDENTS.—

The first move towards amnesty originated on the Republican side of the House.

Application for the relief of sheriffs and tax collectors are already being offered.

Gov. Caldwell was on the floor of the House during the joint session yesterday.

Mr. McGehee, of Person, in supporting the resolutions of Mr. Badger, Republican, in regard to amnesty, made a brief but touching and beautiful address in accepting, as he termed it, the proffered "olive branch." Only one dissenting voice to the passage of the resolution.

Col. Bennett, of Anson, offered a motion yesterday in the House to adjourn till this morning at 9 o'clock. Gen. Gorman, in opposition said, "my friend from Anson does not seem to know where he is Col. Bennett replied, "If I was lost in the woods I certainly would not call on Mr. Gorman to show me the way out.

THE FARMERS ASK FOR RELIEF.—The question is being seriously agitated in regard to memorializing the present Legislature to pass a relief law from the ravages of the Epizootic or Horse Malady. The Hippohinnorrhea which has extended to nearly every city, town, village and through the country in the State, is nothing compared to the Hippoascite, or Horse Dropsy, that is following on now from the Northern States. The people desire a law passed at once preventing the traffic or trade in horses from other States till the Epihippic is over. We know that the Governor at one time came very near issuing a proclamation to that effect, but discovered in time that there was no statute by which he was permitted to do so. At the instigation of several prominent farmers and citizens, we submit these remarks for the especial consideration of the General Assembly.

DEATH OF ALEXANDER MILLER.—Alexander Miller, Esq., of Johnston county, formerly of Newbern, father-in-law of Rev. J. B. Bobbitt, of this city, died at his residence on yesterday evening of a congestive chill. Mr. Miller was about 62 years of age. He was greatly esteemed and respected by all who knew him. He was an elder in the Presbyterian Church.

THE NORTH CAROLINA LEGISLATURE.

THIRD DAY.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 20, 1872.

SENATE.

The Senate met at 14 o'clock, a. m., President Morehead in the Chair.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

Introduction of Bills

Mr. Todd introduced

A bill to prevent the spreading of disease among cattle. The General Assembly do enact, that no person shall, between the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, drive nor in any manner carry any cattle across the Yadkin river from the South side to the North side thereof, from East bank to the head of said river, nor across the Blue Ridge from the head of the Yadkin to the Grand father Mountain.

2. That any person vialating this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the Court.

3. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

Referred to committee on Propositions and Grievances.

Mr. Norwood—A Bill to raise a joint select committee on the State debt and liabilities. Said committee to consist of six members of the Senate and nine members of the House. Lies over under the rules.

Reports of Committees.

Mr. Dunham, from Finance Committee appointed at the last session to examine and audit the accounts of the State Treasurer, made the following report:

To the Honorable the General Assembly of North Carolina:

The undersigned, a majority of your Committee, appointed at the last session to examine the accounts of the Treasury, closing on the 30th day of September, 1872, as required by section '77 and '78, chapter 170, laws of 1868-'69, have the honor to report that we met by appointment of the Chairman of the Committee at the office o the State Treasurer, in Raleigh, on the 15th day of October, and on that day and through the following days performed the labors involved in our appointment as we understood them.

Ascertaining from the Treasurer that the accounts of the Treasury for the fiscal year, ending 30th day of September, 1871, had never been examined nor reported upon by any previous committee appointed by your honorable body, we deem it to the interests of the State to extend our examination, back through said fiscal year ending on the 30th day of September, 1872, and report them accordingly.

We take pleasure in stating that we found the books of the Treasury, during these years, kept in a neat, perspicuous and careful manner, and the vouchers, for both receipts and disbursements, neatly labled and orderly arranged and filed, by months in the order of time in which the transactions occurred, which, added to the courtesy and readiness of the officers of the department—in extending to us every opportunity for investigation, greatly facilitated the labor of their examination.

We find that since the first day of October, 1871 (at which time there was a balance in the Treasury, as heretofore reported by the Treasurer, of $215,423 13, and during the fiscal year ending 20th September, 1872, there has been received into the Treasury, from all sources, $700,477.02½, and that during the same time there has been paid out of the Treasury $801,808.62, leaving a balance in the Treasury on the first day of October, 1872, $114,141.53, which will appear more in detail by the general statement hereto attached as a part of this report, which is found to correspond with the books of the Treasury.

We have examined all the vouchers for both receipts and disbursements by the Treasury, during the fiscal year ending 30th September, 1871, as aforesaid, and also during the year ending 30th September, 1872, and examined and compared the warrants of the Auditor with the usual laws under which they purport to be drawn, and accordingly report and certify that, in our opinion, all of said warrants, and the payments made by the Treasury therein, (except such cases as are hereinafter reported and specified,) were authorized by law, in all cases reasonably and fairly construed,

We are further of opinion that the following warrants, paid by the Treasury, were drawn without authority of law:

1. In 1870–'71. Four warrants for $125 each, in favor of "J. W. Hood, Agent Board of Education," paid on the 25th of October, 1870, the 30th of November, 1870 the 30th of December, 1870, the 1st of February, 1871, and one warrant for $80 35, paid to the same person on the 22nd of March, 1871. The books of the Treasury do not inform us of the character of the services rendered to the Board of Education by this Agent.

2. In February, 1871. Warrant in favor of W. H Bailey, as a member of the Code Commission, on account of salary as such Commissioner for January 1871, for $200. The law, by virtue of which the members of Commission received any compensation, was repealed on the 20th day of December, 1870. See laws of 1870-'71 chap. 16, page 53. It appears also, by vouchers on file in the Treasury, that the said Wm. H. Bailey and the Hon. Wm B. Rodman were paid the usual salaries, without abatement, for the time elapsing after the said 20th of December, 1870, whereby it appears that the said Bailey and Rodman were, each, improperly paid from the Treasury the further sum of $66.66.

3. In 1871. Voucher 288. Warrants in favor of J. J. Sawyer and F. H Busbee, each for $150, the latter for indexing side notes to the laws of 1870-'71. The Secretary of State doubtless considered it to be his right and duty to contract for said indexing and side notes under section 46 of chap. 270 of the laws of 1868-'69, without having his attention called to chap. 71, laws of 1866-'67, which requires this work to be done by the chief clerks of the Senate and House of Representatives, which requirement we do not regard as repealed by said chap. 270. At all events, there should not be, in the opinion of your committee, two statutes requiring the same duties to be performed, but in a different manner and by different officers.

4. In August, 1871. Warrant in favor of W. T. Brown, for $81 25, and warrant in favor of F. C. Allen for $281 85, both collected by H. H. Roberts, at the time of such collection a clerk in the Auditor's department. We learned that shortly after the payment of these accounts it was discovered, through the diligence of Mr. Partin, another clerk in the Auditor's department, that they were fraudulent and executed by said Roberts to defraud the Treasury; whereupon Roberts was promptly discharged, and Mr. Adams, the Auditor, has repaid into the Treasury the first named amount, $81.25, and is making regular deposits to meet the other amount, $281.85.

5. In February, 1872, there was also paid to A. Syme, for said notes to the laws of 1871-'72, and in 1872, to S. M. Parish, for indexing the same, each the sum of $100. We call this to your attention for reasons hereinbefore given, in order that it may be determined by your body whether it is still also the duty of the chief clerks of the Senate and House to perform this duty.

Though probably not strictly within the scope of our duties, yet we concur in the propriety of our calling the attention of your honorable body to a few matters wherein there may, as we think, be salutary reform:

1. We believe much revenue is lost to the School Fund by the failure of the clerks of the Superior Courts faithfully to account to the Treasurer for all fines, penalties and forfeitures received by them, and we recommend such legislation as will secure more promptness and fidelity in this regard.

2. There should be, we think, some limit to the costs of distributing the laws of the State, which seems yearly to involve increased expense, the cost of the same for the year 1872 being as the Treasurers books show, nearly $1,400 Formerly, when the facilities for travel and transportation were much less, the costs, we learn, were not generally this sum.

3. Whether the system of Quarantine in operation in the State, secures success commensurate with the expense invoived in its estabishment and maintainance is a question to which we ask your attention.

4. We are satisfied that the charity of the State in offering to aid in the support of the mutes, the blind and the insane is improperly taxed and abused by some of the counties whose authorities monthly draw from the Treasury sums of money which the construction of the laws did not contemplate.

5. Since the State Auditor is made the final arbiter or all questions affecting the propriety and legality of claims upon the Treasury and the Treasurer of the State is compelled to pay upon the Auditor's warrants, we respectfully suggest whether a more perfect supervision may not be secured over the disbursments of the Treasury by enlarging the duties of future committees like ours so that the examination of accounts shall embrace also the accounts of the Auditor, and by empowering them to cancel accumulated vouchers which have been examed and passed in the accounts of the Treasurer for previous years.

Respectfully submitted,

J. A. GILMER, Ch'm'n, pro tem
J. T. HARRIS
J. W. DUNHAM.

THURSDAY.....NOVEMBER 21, 1872.

THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

We send out to-day, as a supplement to the NEWS, the annual message of Tod R. Caldwell, Governor of North Carolina.

We have only space this morning to say that the production is about as good as we could expect from Caldwell. It is well written, but betrays throughout that partisan spirit which is a part and parcel of the Governor's existence and which permeates his whole being. Since he has been in the Executive Chair, his every official act has been characterized by the same narrow, contracted, bitter spirit. He cannot rise to the dignity of a statesman. He cannot smother his party prejudices when dealing with questions in which the whole people of the State have an interest. He cannot let any opportunity pass, however inappropriate the occasion, to gratify political spleen and to attempt to administer a blow to his opponents.

Some of the recommendations in his message are well worthy of consideration and will no doubt engage the attention of the General Assembly at an early day. But he proposes nothing pratical. His sentences read well enough in print, but they are filled with platitudes and vague generalities which signify sound and fury more than any thing else.

The first part of the message is devoted to our Federal relations. Gov. Caldwell seems to strangely confound the national Government with the Radical Administration. He is very proud of the expressions, "in accord with the Nation," "in accord with the National Government," &c., clearly showing that, viewed through his Radical spectacles, Grant and the United States Government are one and the same! This proves that our Governor, with all his experience, is a mere neophyte in politics, and does not understand the plainest provisions of our fundamental law.

The Governor is laboring under a radical error on this subject. If he means by being "in accord with the Nation," is to approve the policy of Grant's Administration, we might refer him to the State of South Carolina, whose helpless condition is even more deplorable than ours, but which is so intensely loyal that she sends a unanimous Radical delegation to Congress, while Kentucky, Maryland and Missouri, three of the wealthiest and most flourishing Southern States, which are also "in full accord with the Government," are not, in any sense, in accord with Grant's Administration.

For want of space to-day, we must defer our comments on the State matters discussed in the Governor's message, to a future issue.

FEDERAL JURIES.

Sometime since, in the discharge of what we considered a public duty, we published a critical examination of the United States law relative to the selection of juries in the Federal Court.

The United States jurors are now picked by the Marshal, notwithstanding that Congress has enacted that "jurors in all cases to serve in the courts of the United States, shall be designated by lots or otherwise in each State respectively, according to the mode of forming juries therein now practiced, so far as the laws of the same shall render such designation practicable by the courts or the Marshals of the United States."

We learn that it was the practice prior to the discontinuance of the United States Courts here in 1861, to obey the law in this respect, and to obtain from the Clerks of the various counties a list of persons qualified to serve as jurors in the State courts; from whom the Federal juries were drawn BY LOT.

Such also was the mode of procedure for some time after the war, but when Judge Chase first held court here, in 1867, we believe, he found that the provisions of the State law permitted only white men to be jurors, and as this was not in accordance with his views, he directed the United States Marshal to summon jurors without regard to color, but possessing all the other qualifications required by the State law.

This order did not justify the Marshal in picking his men, nor did it necessarily dispense with the ancient practice of drawing the jury by lot.—Yet under color of this order, a change was made in the manner of selecting jurors for the Federal courts, which renders our jury trials a farce and a mockery of the system.

In 1868, the State law was modified by abolishing all distinctions of color with reference to jurors for the State,—so that the reason for Judge Chase's order then ceased, and there was no longer any pretended occasion for ignoring the old practice of the court and for disregarding the express Act of Congress. But nevertheless it has been considered proper by the Federal Court to continue this innovation—of permitting the Marshal TO PICK a suitable jury.

In reflecting upon this matter, it has occurred to us that the only shadow of excuse for allowing this evil, is to be discovered in the circumstance that there is no provision in our State law requiring the Clerks of our counties to furnish to the Federal Court a list of persons qualified to serve as State jurors.

We therefore respectfully call the attention of the General Assembly to this matter, and take this occasion to urge that an act be passed making it incumbent on the clerks to discharge this duty, and thus to deprive the Federal Court of a seeming defence for what we conscientiously believe to be an entirely indefensible practice.

GRANT'S FUTURE POLICY.

We must confess we do not share in the hopes indulged by some of our Conservative exchanges in regard to the policy likely to be pursued toward the South, by the Federal Administration.

It is true the President can afford to be magnanimous, in view of his overwhelming triumph. But we very much fear that he will still be controlled by the evil men to whom he has heretofore looked for counsel—such men as Morton, Conkling Chandler, Butler et id omne genus.

It is true that Grant has now an opportunity of doing a great service to the country—and especially to the South, if he will cut loose from the corrupt politicians by whom he has been surrounded, and strike out in a new and different line. We do not expect, however, that he will signalize his second Administration by a new departure from the old beaten track of proscription and hate. We are apprehensive that the South will experience no change for the better, but that our people will continue to be made the victims of sectional hatred and oppression.

ARREST OF MEMBERS OF THE ALABAMA LEGISLATURE.

The Democrats and Conservatives of the Alabama Legislature have four majority on joint ballot.

A few days since, as we were informed by telegraph, three of them were arrested by a United States Deputy Marshal and were not allowed to give bail. The object was to prevent the Conservatives and Democrats from organizing the Legislature.

Our telegrams yesterday announced that the arrested members had since been released on bail.

Is this the generous policy the Radicals promised us in case of Gen. Grant's re-election in November? Is this their boasted magnanimity in the hour of victory? Is this the peace—Heaven save the mark!—that is in store for the South?

THE STATE DEBT AND THE BALTIMORE BONDHOLDERS.

Mr. Merrimon, Senator from the District composed of the counties of Buncombe and Madison, introduced a bill in the Senate on Tuesday, to commute, compound and adjust the public debt. The bill was referred, but we hope its discussion will come up at an early day as the people have a great deal of anxiety on the subject, and demand relief in some shape or other.

We have before referred to the action of the Baltimore holders of our State bonds and the memorial they propose to present to our Legislature early in December.

From the Baltimore papers we copy the following account of the proceedings of the meeting which was held in that city on the 15th instant:

A general interchange of views was had, extending through some two hours Mr. Miles White proposed the appointment of a committee of conference to act in concert with bondholders of other cities in preparing a memorial to the North Carolina Legislature to liquidate the bonds now outstanding amounting to from $12,000,000 to $14,000,000. Pending the motion a call of the gentlemen present was made, and it was found that $301,000 in bonds was represented.

Mr. Hooper stated that two propositions had been presented to him. One was that the State impose a larger tax levy in order to cover the State debt, and receive, say one-third or one quarter of the taxes in bonds at par value, and all persons surrendering bonds be entitled to the State's right in railroads, and thus reduce the bonded debt. Another was to fund the entire debt, and issue new bonds, say at fifty years to run, the State paying 2 per cent. on the first five years, 2½ the next five, and so on up to 6 per cent., at the same gradual increase, until the bonds matured. He opposed any idea looking like repudiation, and believed from information received that the State was now able to pay 3 per cent. The whole debt was now about $35,000,000, and if it could be reduced to say $20,000,000, he believed that the State could pay its interest promptly. If, on the other hand, the interest alone was funded, the debt remained.

Mr. White suggested that the present difficulty was in the collection of the State taxes. There were a large number of the colored people, as well as the poor whites, who could not even pay the poll tax.

Mr. Samuel Edmunds stated that the whole debt of the State was $29,416,000, of which about $8,000,000 was the old State debt, $11,000,000 was a special tax bonds, and the balance miscellaneous—the State possessed assets equal to about $25,000,000. He proposed not to invite repudiation, but to memoralize the Legislature, which meets on Monday next, to at once fund the debt and issue new bonds paying three per cent. the first five years, and graduate the interest after, so that not less than six per cent. shall be finally paid. North Carolina does not propose this as repudiation, but her bond holders do propose it on account of her present condition.

Mr. Dean thought a committee should be appointed to act upon the matter at once, and that this committee should be uninstructed as to their action.

Mr. Edmunds proposed that Baltimore should act at alone, without waiting for the boldholders of other cities.

A series of resolutions were finally adopted to memorialize the Legislature of the State to fund the debt, to issue new bonds to mature in 30 years, and to pay 3 per cent. the first five years, 4 per cent, the second five years, 5 per cent. the third five years, and 6 per cent. thereafter until the bonds matured. The bondholders of Philadelphia and New York were also invited to co-operate with Baltimore, and either to sign a memorial to be placed at the banking house of Hooper, Reese & Co., in this city, or to join in a concerted effort to present some acceptable plan for the liquidation of the debt. The meeting adjourned subject to the call of the president.

CAMERON AND GRANT.

The papers continue to discuss the rupture between Simon Cameron and President Grant, concerning the appointment of the Post Master at Philadelphia.

We have already stated how the Cameron delegation were recently snubbed by Grant during their visit to the White House, and how they retired mortified and disgusted on account of their failure to have one of their Radical henchmen appointed to the position.

A correspondent of the Philadelphia Press, after giving an account of the speech of Mayor Stokely, of Philadelphia, the spokesman of the delegation, and then Grant's reply, adds:

As soon as Grant had finished, the delegation, at least that part of it favorable to Mr. Truman, seeing that the claims of their candidate were not recognized, seized their hats, and beat a hasty retreat. "It all up with us," said one of the Truman men as the left the Executive office, "and the d—d civil service has done it."

All the way from the White House to Willard's Hotel the disappointed crowd cursed the civil service rules and regulations. Not a few of them openly denounced the President. The good-humored Theodore Walton, who was for Fairman, and therefore felt happy, said, "There is no use in denouncing the President; he is in for four more years, and you can't hurt him." "Well," was the response, "if we can't hurt him, I guess we can do something with his next friend, and he ain't in yet." This remark came from a member of the Legislature. "Who is his next friend?" was a question which met the answer, "Why, General Cameron, of course, and I believe he might have made this for us if he had tried; he never said a word, but let Stokeley do all the talking."

Another of the party remarked: "This is what we get for working like the devil to elect Grant, and for risking a term in the workhouse to carry the city for Hartranft." Some of the enraged of the party went so far as to say: 'If the civil service rules and regulations were applied to Grant, I'll be——if he would be in the White House." Of course these expressions were copiously interlarded with oaths which would not sound well to the ears of the people. Several members of the Legislature ventered the opinion that General Cameron had "gone back on them," to use their own phrase, but the General's friends frowned down the idea. The victorious members of the delegation, the friends of Mr. Fairman—Colonel Mann, General Collis, and Mr. Walton—left on the noon train, but the other party remained over, in the hope of convincing the President that he ought to set aside the civil service rules and regulations and appoint Mr. Truman. They will probably go home wiser if not better men.

The Raleigh Daily News.

THURSDAY.....NOVEMBER 21, 1872.

STATE NEWS.

THE Southern Home calls Charlotte "the future London of the South."

OLE Bull Concert Troupe, perform in Wilmington on the 25th instant.

THE Wilmington draymen are charging $1 50 per load for hauling.

THE Statesville Cornet Band will give a concert for the benefit of the Band on to-morrow night.

SEVEN thousand additions to the Baptist Church in North Carolina. Over $15,000 have been collected.

THE Charlotte Observer says at the present term of the Court there are 54 cases on the criminal docket and 327 on the civil docket.

THE Statesville Intelligencer says: Two new streets have been laid off in this place, and ere long we hope to see some good buildings put on them.

THE Wilmington Star says, the street cars are running, as usual, to Union Depot for the accommodation of the travelling public, notwithstanding the prevalence of the epizooty.

THE Rutherfordton Vindicater says that good old fashioned "corn shuckins" are in vogue again, and night is made hideous by the plantations songs of the darkeys so gay.

THE Wilmington Star says, Constable Moore, of Cape Fear Township, succeeded in capturing, on Saturday night last, one Calvin Miller, an escaped prisoner from Bladen county, charged with some criminal offence.

THE Rutherfordton Vindicater says a poor outcast named Catharine Shehan, lay round the streets starving and freezing, until Tuesday the 5th instant when she died. A subscription was raised to bury her by the citizens.

THE Wilmington Journal says the verdict of the jury of inquest in the case of the boy Swayne Guyer, who was run over and killed on the W. & W. Railroad last Friday afternoon, yesterday rendered a verdict to the effect that he came to his death by being injured by a train of cars on the W. & W. Railroad.

THE Western Union Telegraph Company have made the following reduction in their rates, to take effect on the 19th instant:

From Wilmington, N. C., to Augusta, Ga., for ten words, old rate $1, new rate 75 cents; to Boston, Mass, old rate $1 75, new rate $1 50; to Baltimore, Md., old rate $1 30, new rate $1; to Chicago, Ill., old rate $2 55, new rate $2; to Charlotte, N. C., old rate 90 cents, new rate 75 cents; to Enfield, N. C., old rate 65 cents, new rate 50 cents; to Flemington, N. C., old rate 50 cents, new rate 40 cents; to New York City, old rate $1 50, new rate $1 25; to New Bern, N. C., old rate 65 cents, new rate 50 cents; to Philadelphia, Pa., old rate $1 40, new rate $1 25; to Washington, D. C., old rate $1 20, new rate $1. It should be understood that there is a corresponding reduction on all messages in excess of ten words.

Fire-Proof Buildings.

The American Artisan now has the floor on the subject of fire-proof buildings. Its plan is novel and simple, and it now remains for experts to pronounce on its effectiveness. The Artisan thinks that we should "make up the partition of walls of building in a manner analagous to sectional steam-boilers, and no fire would be communicated from one building to another. A thing so evident should have attracted the attention of architects long before this. In this way, iron, which by itself is not a fire proofing material, can by the most economical use of water, be made to withstand the severest ordeal. The iron-clad water-spaces need not be more than one inch in thickness, and need never be subjected to a hydraulic pressure of more than three or four feet head. These walls can, therefore, be made of thin metal. They can be supplied with water from the common water-service, or from tanks placed at the tops of buildings. In case of fire, the turning of a single cock would supply them with water, and the temperature of the partitions could never rise above 212 degrees Fahrenheit till the water had all boiled away. In this way, not a tithe of the water now vainly used to extinguish such fires as those of Chicago and Boston, would be needed to preserve a whole city.

Daring Outrage--Robbery by a Band of Masked Thieves.

At six o'clock last Friday evening, while Mr. Watson and his family were at supper at their residence in Titusville, Pa., five men whose faces were masked, entered their apartments, and after threatening them with their revolvers presented, handcuffed the whole family, after which they were all gagged and tightly bound together. While this was going on inside the house, four other men remained on guard outside. The thieves then proceeded to ransack the house and succeeded in opening the safe, from which they obtained between one and two thousand dollars. In their haste a kerosene lamp was upset, the flames communicating to the furniture, and it was with great difficulty that the robbers extinguished the fire. Mr. Watson was severely burned where he lay upon the floor.

The perpetrators of the daring outrage then left the house, leaving the inmates securely gagged and bound. It was not until midnight that their condition was discovered. Mrs. Watson was found in a critical condition, the handcuffs and irons placed on her ankles having cut into her flesh. No clue has yet been found as to the perpetrators.

In Charlestown, West Virginia, there lives an old couple, named Nathan Hudnal and his wife Rachel. She was born in Bedford county, Va., on the 14th of November, 1774. She married and moved with her husband and father to the county in which she now lives, in the fall of 1793. She is the mother of fourteen children. One of her grand daughters, now fifty-six years old, gave the history of her offspring up to the present time. The grand totalization of her progeny now foots up as follows: Children, 14; grand children, 99; great and great grand children, 223; total off-spring (two States to hear from) 336.

Gen. Beauregard has been elected Administrator of Improvements at New Orleans.

A TEST CASE.—Friends of good government are waiting with some anxiety for the President's choice of a postmaster for Philadelphia. Directly, the matter concerns all people who have business with the Philadelphia post-office; indirectly, it concerns every man in the country. For the first time since the election this issue is submitted, plain and simple, to the President: Shall politicians receive offices merely as reward for campaign services, and not with reference to their fitness and the public accommodation, or shall the offices be given to those known to be best qualified? For the Philadelphia postmastership there are two candidates. One is Mr. Fairman, now deputy postmaster, trained by a long experience to the business, and strictly in the line of promotion. The other is Mr. Truman, a man active in politics, a figurer in the first three Presidential campaigns, and a member of the "Republican Invincibles," whatever they may be. He is named as the politicial cendidate, and backed for his political services only, by Senator Cameron, Governor elect Hartraft, and that set. Mr. Fairman has the support of a great many bankers, newspaper people, and other business men. Politics on the one side and proved merit on the other were never brought into clearer contrast in making claims for office. From the President's decision in this case—as good a test case as could be made up—we can see whether we have anything to hope for civil service refrom in his second term. —Journal of Commerce.

THE POWER IN THE GOVERNMENT.—Montgomery Blair has written a letter demonstrating the causes of the Liberal defeat, the chief of which was our failure to make a square issue with the growing "money power" of the country. The history of the rise and progress of this money power in the United States is full of interest and well calculated to excite alarm. It is unquestionably the most direful enemy with which we have to contend. It is an element that is generally enlisted on the side of tyranny, and in all ages has proved its most powerful adjunct, and against it the most vigorous and inflexible energies of the country's patriotism must be directed. It is growing with alarming rapidity, and the public mind is not yet quickened to a realization of its mighty influence. This must be done for if the infant Hercules is not strangled in its cradle it will live long to oppress and torment us. We must crush out "its venom and its strength," and we must do so speedily.

OH! YE CRUEL DOCTOR MEN.—A large number of negroes, mostly young girls, are afraid to pass in the vicinity of the Medical College, for fear of being chopped up alive for the benefit of the young sawbones. These negroes actually believe with confirmation strong, that there is a law extant giving the Medical College five live negro subjects at the commencement of each term. So strongly is this idea impressed upon their minds that the bare sight of the college or a medical student throws them into a duck fit. One negro girl seeing a number of medical students coming down the streets, yesterday, and fearing that they were after her, gathered her child in her arms, and screaming at the top of her voice, ran away as fast as her legs could carry her.—Mobile Register.

On Sunday night, the 12th inst., Mr. Henry Maddox dreamed that his father, Mr. John Maddox, was dead. The old gentleman lived some three miles from him, between the Yellow and South rivers, in the Southern part of Newton county, and had been suffering from paralysis for several months. The dream rendered Henry so uneasy that he went to see his father on Monday, whom he found about as he usually had been for some weeks. After spending some time with the old man, the son started to leave, but his mother called to him that his father was worse, and he returned only in time to find him breathing his last. The deceased was abut seventy years of age, and was universally respected as a quiet and orderly Christian, whose life attested the genuineness of his profession.—Covington (Ky.) Enterprise.

The Knoxville Press and Herald says: "What will Mr. Greeley do now?" Well, Mr. Greeley will act wisely, like a Dutch landlord in Buffalo, who was defeated for the office of Canal Commissioner. On being told of his misfortune he exclaimed: "Wot, wot! Vell, I shust go back to Buffalo and keep the Manshion House like hell."—Courier Journal.

The leading physicians of the country have started a movement for raising a fund for the family of the late Horace Wells, the discoverer of the principal anæsthesia. Although he conferred upon mankind a boon of inestimable value, he died poor, and his family are in want.

A Miss Polk, of Tennessee, is now the reigning belle at one of Italy's favored places of fashionable resort—Monza. She is a great favorite of the Princess Royal Marquette, and is often a welcomed and cherished guest at the royal palace of Monza.

In a recent letter Gerritt Smith excuses his going bail for Jefferson Davis with Mr Greeley by saying; "I have always held that the South had been before a nation de facto, and should have been treated as such, and hence that no man should have been tried for treason."

Full official returns of the vote of Pennsylvania give Grant a majority of 137,728.

The price of hauling has advanced three hundred per cent. in Lynchburg, Va.

Woodhull and Claflin now admit that they had about Beecher and Mrs. Tilton.

It is estimated that the wheat crop of the Valley of Virginia this year will reach 2,959,689 bushels.

It has been decided that a man becomes of age on the day preceding the twenty-first anniversary of his birth.

The horse disease has so far disappeared in Richmond, Va., as to occasion but little inconvenience.

The fine bridge at Richmond, Va., between Manchester and Richmond, is rapidly approaching completion.

This is strictly a

HOME LIFE COMPANY.

Its Officers and Directors are citizens of the State, of high character for business capacity, enterprise and probity. It offers every that Northern Companies do, with the great additional consideration that the capital is kept within the State, and, therefore, helps to build up and foster Home Institutions.

Another important fact to be considered is, that the Wilmington Life has thus far obtained A VERY MUCH LARGER INTEREST for the money invested at home, than any of the New York Companies receive for their investments, according to their sworn statements before the Commissioner of that state.

These unquestionable facts should commend this company, above all others, to our people. Let it be born in mind that millions of dollars received for Life premiums have been sent North since the war, which at once drains the South and enriches the plethoric capitalists of the North. If there was no other consideration, safety, fairness and cheapness being equal why North Carolinians should INSURE AT HOME, this were more than sufficient.

THE WILMINGTON LIFE

has excellent special features.

It places no restriction on Residence or Travel; it makes no extra charge for Female risks; and its Policies are incontestable after Five Years.

Its business is managed economically. Its risks are taken with equal caution. Its investments are made judiciously.

Its motto is:

"ECONOMY, PROMPTNESS, FAIRNESS."

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

The United States and Mexico.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20—Thomas Furman has been appointed Post Master at Philadelphia.

Our Minister to Mexico, Mr. Nelson, had a long interview with President Grant this afternoon relative to the condition of affairs in that country. He speaks in terms of praise of the new President of that Republic, and particularly of his intelligence and desire to preserve and strengthen the friendship now existing between his own country and the United States. There seems to be no obstacle in the way of concluding a new Convention, extending the time for disposing of the remaining claims before the United States and the Mexican Mixed Commission, which by limitation, will expire under the present Convention in February next.

It is stated that the Mexican President is anxious for such an extension, and will appoint an agent in good faith to carry on the design of the Commission in place of Mr. Guzman, by whose action the proceedings were some weeks ago interrupted. Preliminary steps have already been taken for a new Convention.

The body which constituted you the Committee I do not recognize as the General Assembly, and therefore have no official communication to transmit."
